

Guideline:

How to justify your own opinion and how to react to other opinions

- 1) Read the text (box 2) carefully and identify the main arguments.
- 2) Think of balanced arguments in order to justify your own opinion regarding voting at age 16.
- 3) Read the posted arguments given by a variety of people (box 3) and identify the different views and arguments.
- 4) Make your main points stand out in a statement while also considering the arguments of the other participants of the forum by either supporting the arguments with helpful details or by rejecting them with counter arguments.
